BRUMBAUGH—On Nov. 2, 1869 a baby son came to the home of John and Susan Brumbaugh and was given the name of George W. He was born in Jackson township, Montgomery County, Ohio, and departed this life in the same county and state, near the village of Johnsville, Oct. 30, 1934, aged 65 yrs., after an illness of nineteen months in which he was very patient to the last.

He was united in marriage to Clara D. Tobias on Oct. 14, 1894. To this union were born three daughters, namely, Orpha Marie, Ada Mae and Kathryn Irene. The last preceded him in death in 1913, also one grandchild, Janet Louise Miller, in 1929. His father, mother, two sisters and two brothers also have gone on before.

On Oct. 5, 1933 he asked to be united with the Old German Baptist Church, and was received as an applicant for baptism which on account of bodily weakness was not administered. He was faithful to the end.

He leaves to mourn his departure, his wife, two daughters (Mrs. Raymond Miller and Mrs. Russel Daugherty) two brothers (John and Benjamin), two sisters (Mrs. Neuphemia Boomershine and Mrs. Perry Miller) and many other relatives and friends.

The funeral was held Nov. 2, at 2 P. M. at the Bear Creek M. H. Services by Brethren Benj. E. Beckner and Joseph Frantz. Text, Rev. 22. Burial in Trissel cemetery.

Howser Feb. 8, 1899, was a member of the church of her choice, the Old German Baptist, for about 41 years, served faithfully with her husband in the deacon's office of the church for about 30 years. Fager and George Fager and two brothers, Harley and Frank Fager and one sister, Clara Smith besides a host of other near relatives and friends.

A short time before her death remembering the Apostle James' instruction she was anointed with oil in the name of the Lord. She was rational all the time and enjoyed all of the dear members coming to see her and she realizing she was going to depart this life told us how to divide up her things and how to live together in the family.

The deceased lived in Jewell Co., Kans. till she was about 11 yrs. old, moving to Franklin Co., Eight Mile Church District, living there all the time till in Dec. 1926 she came to Salida, Calif. with her family, residing there the most of her remaining days.

She requested the Berthren to sing and pray for her different times which she enjoyed very much. Hymns selected by the family were 384, 378, 498. Funeral by the home Brethren. Scripture read II Cor. 5: 1-9 in connection with Phil. 1:23 as a text. The body was laid to rest in the Wood Colony cemetery to await the bright resurrection morn. Gone but not forgotten.

ALTICE—Bro. Rufus Altice died within the bounds of the Oak Hill congregation, Franklin Co., Va., Dec. 18, 1934, at the age of 55 years and two days. The cause of his death was cancer of the face from which he was a sufferer for several years, but grew more painful toward the last. He called for the elders and was anointed some time before his death. Hence we have a hope that our loss is His eternal gain.

He leaves to mourn their loss his companion, one son, four grandchildren, one brother, his aged father and many other relatives and friends.

Funeral by the Brethren from I Thess. 4:13 to the conclusion of the chapter. Burial in the family cemetery.

D. A. Montgomery.

CONING—Eliza (Miller) Coning, daughter of George and Caroline Miller, was born in Darke County, Ohio, June 29, 1849 and died at her home in North Manchester, Indiana, November 24, 1934, aged 85 years, 4 months and 26 days.

She was married to Albert Coning on November 8, 1866. They lived on a farm in Darke County near Castine for a short time then they moved to Preble County, Ohio.

To this union were born eleven children: Laura Prowant (deceased), Martha Hoblet (deceased), Harvey (deceased), George, Amanda Garber, Daniel, Jesse, Noah, Emma (deceased), William and Mary Kamp.

The husband departed this life on August 31, 1900.

In 1908 Eliza and three of the children moved to near Peru, Indiana and sometime later, to North Manchester, where she lived at the time of her death.

She is survived by one full brother, eight half-brothers and sisters, seven children, 38 grandchildren and 51 great-grandchildren.

She became affiliated with the Old German Baptist Church early in life and remained a faithful and consistent member.

Realizing her declining health, she called for the anointing, which was done a few weeks before her death.

Short funeral services were held at the North Manchester meeting house at 8:30 November 26, and was conducted by the home brethren. Following this the cortege went to Castine, Ohio where further services were held in the Church of the Brethren meeting house. This service was in charge of Brethren Arthur Silvers and O. A. Custer. Burial was in the cemetery near the church.

Jesse M. Coning.

DENLINGER — Clara Denlinger, daughter of Solomon and Elizabeth Aukerman, was born near Palestine, Darke County, Ohio, March 18, 1876, where she resided until the time of her marriage to Harvey Denlinger of near Trotwood, Ohio, on March 19, 1896.

On a farm in this community, they lived, labored, and reared their family, and enjoyed many happy years together.

On December 2, 1934, she, with her husband, went to Florida to spend the winter months, and three days after their arrival she was stricken with apoplexy, and with all that human aid could do she never recovered from this affliction and in Rockledge, Fla. on December 9, 1934, the Master called and her Spirit quietly took its flight to the celestial abiding place. Age 58 years, 8 months, 21 days.

She leaves to mourn their loss, a loving husband, four sons—Willis,

Howard, Milford, and Harry—two daughters—Mrs. Sylvia Weeks and Mrs. Ermal Niswonger,—and ten grandchildren. Also five brothers and two sisters. One granddaughter, Phyllis Jean Denlinger, preceded her in death July 19, 1928.

On May 5, 1926, she united with the Old German Baptist Church, and in this faith lived an exemplary Christian life for the cause of her Master until called to her reward. She was a devoted companion, a kind and loving mother and was deeply interested in her children and grandchildren all of whom reside within three miles of their birthplace. Nothing pleased her more than being in their presence and administering to their needs. Her pleasant conversation and cheerful countenance will be keenly missed in the Home, the Church and the Community.

The funeral services were conducted Dec. 14 P. M. from her late home and the Lower Stillwater M. H., near Taylorsburg, Ohio, to a large and sympathizing congregation, by B.o. Arthur Silvers, assisted by Bro. David Mohler and pastor, W. D. Fisher of Trotwood Church of the Brethren. Text from Christ's prayer in St. John 17th chapter. Burial in Bear Creek cemetery.

GETZ—Nettie Alice Getz, nee Snider, eldest child of Peter and Maria (Ayers) Snider, was born near North Hampton, O., June 4, 1869, and departed this life Sunday, Nov. 25, 1934, at the age of 65 years, 5 months and 21 days.

She was a life long resident of Clarke County, Ohio.

On November 27, 1890 she was united in holy matrimony to William A. J. Getz, which union was blessed with five children (three sons and two daughters); one son died in infancy.

She lived a life of deep devotion to her family and friends and shed a kindly ray of sunshine wherever she was led in her daily walk of life. She will be greatly missed as mother, friend and neighbor. In later years she became a member of the Sunday School of Donnelscreek Church of the Brethren; and although she never accepted Christ as her personal Savior, the good examples of morality, honesty and Christian principles that she daily displayed, we feel confident, shall not lose their reward.

She leaves to mourn her departure, her side companion, four children, Ethel Hockman, Nelson B. Getz, Mrs. Bertha Bean and Geo. H. Getz; eight grandchildren; one sister; three brothers; besides a host of other relatives and friends. One brother preceded her in death several years ago.

Mother is gone, but may her examples of loving devotion live on in the hearts of all who learned to know and love her.

Funeral services were conducted at the Donnelscreek Church of the Brethren, Tuesday, Nov. 27, 2 P. M., in charge of R. F. Flory and Jacob Gingerich, pastors of the Church of the Brethren, to a large and sympathetic audience. Burial in Myers Cemetery.

N. A. Hockman.

GISH—Brother Caleb Jacob, son of Bro. John and Sister Elizabeth Gish, was born near Troutville, Botertot Co., Virginia, March 21, 1870, and departed this life Nov. 29, 1934, during the quiet shades of the night, unknown to any of the family. He moved to Kansas with his parents at about the age of 14 years, from Kansas to Northern California, at about the age of 17 years, and to Southern California near Artesia, at about the age of 24 years. He was united in the bonds of holy matrimony to Dora E. Miller Feb., 1896, making their sojourn together in this life a little over 38 years.

To this union were born seven children (four sons and three daughters), namely: Mildred M. Smith, of Pico, Cal., Edna E. Barnhart of Los Angeles, Cal., and Elmer M., Floyd E., Herman E., Ralph I., and Eva L. Flory, of Whittier, Cal.

Brother and Sister Gish were received into the church of their choice namely The Old German Baptist Church by the Holy rights of Baptism in the year 1896, and were elected to the office of Deacon Aug. 14, 1915, in which office he remained faithful until God said, "It is enough; come up higher." Almost all of their married life was spent on the ranch where he passed away.

He leaves to mourn their loss his companion, Dora E., seven children, nine grandchildren, three brothers and four sisters. His parents and one sister preceded him to the Spirit World.

Through the departure of Bro. Caleb the family has lost a dutiful companion and father, the church a faithful brother and the community a good neighbor; but we hope our loss will be his Eternal Gain. May this sudden and unforeseen death make us all realize that the present is all that we have assurance of in this life, but the future is in the hands of an all wise God who knoweth best. Therefore we ought to lay hold on Eternal Life while Time and Opportunity is ours.

Funeral services were conducted in the New River Meeting House to a large and attentive congregation by Brother Daniel Stamy of the home church assisted by Elders J. A. Cover, and A. E. Miller and Brother Chas. B. Rumble of the Modesto Church. Scriptures used were the 23rd Psalm and James 4:13, 14, 15. Hymns 389, 384, 457 and 491. The body was laid to rest in Olive Grove Cemetery adjoining the New River Church, there to await the Resurrection Morning. Peace be to his ashes.

E. E. Kreiter.

SHULER—Christian Danial, son of Elder Jacob and Sister Rebecca Shuler, was born January 21, 1872, in Logan County, Ohio; came with his parents to Kansas at the age of eight years, settling in Jewell County, near Ionia, what was then called Lime Stone. A little brother passed away just before they left Ohio. His mother and one sister were called to the Great Beyond in less than a year after arriving in Kansas, leaving him, two younger sisters and father alone in their new home. His father married again, thus enabling him to keep the children together.

He was a carpenter and painter, working at his trade for the past 22 years.

He was a bachelor living alone in Lovewell, Kansas for the past 30 years, until last May, when unable to care for himself he went to live at the home of his niece, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. VanMeter. He remained there until his death on December 14, 1934 at the age of 62 years, 10 months and 23 days.

He leaves to mourn his departure one sister, five half-sisters, six half-brothers besides a host of other relatives and friends. Preceding him in death besides his mother, infant brother and sister were father, stepmother, one sister, one half-brother, infant and one half-sister.

He was a kind and loving son, brother, uncle, friend and neighbor. Always willing and eager to serve others in sickness and need. He was very patient, kind and considerate of those caring for him through his long illness and will be sadly missed by all who knew and loved him.

His funeral was held at Lovewell, Kansas, December 16 at 2:30 o'clock. Burial at Fairview cemetery.

His Sisters and Nieces.

No night in that beautiful home!
No shade on its glory is seen;
The wonderful river of water of life,
Flows soft through the meadows of green.

No grief in that beautiful home!
No sorrow can enter its portals!
But glad are the voices that join in its song,
The song of the shining immortals.

No tears in that beautiful home,
No sin from our Savior to sever!
The King in his beauty our eyes shall behold
And join in his praises forever.

IS A 24-PAGE RELIGIOUS MAGAZINE

For the dissemination of the Primitive Faith, and practice of the early Christian as taught by Jesus Christ and his Apostles and as handed down to the present day by the OLD GERMAN BAPTIST CHURCH.

Price $1.00 per year payable in advance

It contends for the Ancient Principles of the Old Church, and for the Old Paths. It admonishes to humility, love and peace; a check to the rapid growth of pride and popularity; a renunciation of sin in all its various forms, and a deeper work of grace in the heart, etc.

"For whatsoever things were written aforetime, were written for our learning, that we through patience and comfort of the Scriptures might have hope. Now the God of patience and consolation grant you to be like minded, one toward another, according to Christ Jesus: that ye may with ONE mind and one mouth glorify God, even the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ. Wherefore receive ye one another, as Christ also received us to the glory of God." (Romans 15:4-7).

Wait not till death has chilled my brow
And I am in my grave.

I care not for the flowers placed
In wreaths above my mound;
I can not smell their fragrance sweet,
When I'm beneath the ground.

Yea, in the cold and silent tomb,
I hope to find sweet rest;
Speak now the words with comfort fraught
And calm my troubled breast.

What good can deeds of honor do
Above my silent form
When I am anchored in the vale.
Safe guarded from the storm?

Wait not 'til death has called me hence,
For then 'twill be too late;
I'll not need your words of praise
When I've reached the Golden Gate.

BLOCHER—Joseph Blocher, son of Daniel and Catherine Blocher, was born in Wabash County, Ind., on Dec. 2, 1854. Departed this life Nov. 30, 1934, at the home of B. C. Holland of Wenatchee, Wash., where he had made his home since August. Aged 79 years, 11 months and 28 days.

He lived in Indiana until 1902, when he moved to North Dakota, and settled on a homestead near Surrey. In 1907 he moved to Wenatchee, Wash., and in 1919 he moved to Whittier, Calif., where he continued to reside until shortly before his death.

In early manhood he was united in marriage to Sarah Brubaker of Wabash Co., Ind. To this union five children were born, four sons and one daughter. David, Arthur and Virgil preceded him in death. The remaining children are Noah and Mrs. Pearl Bolen of Whittier, Calif., also four grandchildren and one great grandchild, beside a host of other relatives and friends who mourn the loss of one who to know was but to love. He was the last of a family of 12 children to pass to the great beyond.

Early in life he became a member of the church, and always contended for the ancient order of the Church, but never fully identified himself with the Old German Baptist church until about 10 years ago, and lived a consistent and exemplary life until death. Realizing that his health was failing he called for the Elders and was anointed while the Committee Brethren were at Whittier last July. On Thanksgiving Day he ate a hearty meal and seemed in his usual health, but took suddenly ill during the night and at 3 A. M. waved his hand and bade them all good-bye and peaceably passed away. He was of a kind and affectionate disposition and made friends with all he met.

Funeral was held at the Sunnyslope Church of the Bhethren near Wenatchee, Wash., by Elder Jesse D. Brown of the Dunkard Brethren Church, assisted by Lewis Ulrich of the Church of the Brethren. Burial was made in the cemetery near by.

CLOYD—Rebecca Campbell Cloyd, daughter of William and Christina Campbell, was born near West Alexandria, Preble Co., Ohio, Aug. 2, 1842. She was next to the oldest in a family of 14 children. Feb. 3, 1865 she was united in the holy bonds of matrimony to William Cloyd. This union was blessed with 2 daughters, Maria, who preceded her to the better world about 6 years ago and Flora E. Daily with whom she made her home after Maria's death.

After being afflicted for 9 years her husband preceded her to the "golden shore," nearly 20 years ago. She had an afflicted limb for a number of years, but could walk with a crutch. With the exception of a few sick spells she had reasonable health for her age, until about 7 weeks ago. She suffered intensely until last Tuesday evening when the good Lord sent the death angel and she passed peacefully to the great beyond at the ripe age of 92 years, 6 months, 24 days. She leaves to mourn her departure 1 daughter and husband, 1 granddaughter and husband, 1 great grandchild, 1 sister, 1 brother and a host of other relatives and friends. She was an affectionate companion, a kind indulgent mother and a sympathetic friend to all. We feel our loss is her eternal gain.

The funeral was conducted at the home of her daughter by the brethren.

Ervan Eikenberry.

DOTY—Fred Doty, son of Orsamus and Loretta Doty, was born May 17, 1859 and passed to the great beyond Feb. 23, 1935, with sudden heart attack, aged 75 years, 9 months, 6 days. He was united in holy matrimony to Jenny Smith, April 19, 1885 who preceded him in death June 19, 1926. Two brothers also preceded him in death. On Oct. 2, 1929, he was united in holy matrimony to Sister Maggie E. Miller. He leaves to mourn their loss, his wife, one niece, Mrs. Ilah Gale of St. Charles, Mich., and other distant relatives and many friends as he had lived near Brant, Mich., nearly all his life.

Funeral services at 2 P. M. Feb. 27, in the M. P. Church at Brant, Mich., conducted by the undersigned, assisted by Pre. Geo. Merton, pastor of the M. P. Church. Interment in the Brant cemetery nearby, which he had taken care of for several years. May the sudden death of others bring to our minds the great necessity of being ready to meet death when it comes.

Albert Balsbaugh.

HUFFORD—Amanda Hufford, oldest daughter of Isaac and Malinda Blocher, was born in Wabash Co., Ind., on May 14, 1866. Departed this life at the home of her daughter Elizabeth Wagoner, near Surrey, N. Dak., on Feb. 19, 1935. Age, 68 years, 9 month, and 5 days. She was united in marriage to Simon Hufford, of N. Manchester, Ind., on Dec. 14, 1884. This union was blessed with 12 children, four died in childhood. There are left to mourn her departure, her husband, and 8 children, namely, George and John of Indiana, Elizabeth Wagoner, Daniel, William and Ida Flory of Surrey, N. Dak. Albert and Elmer of California, also five brothers and four sisters, 25 grandchildren, and a host of other relatives and friends.

After their marriage they lived in Wabash Co., and Jasper Co., Ind., until the spring of 1901 when they emigrated to N. Dak. and filed on a homestead about four miles north of Surrey and continued to reside in that vicinity until her death, with the exception of 1½ years that they spent with their son John and family near Goshen, Ind. She was one of the charter members of the Surrey church and always was an active worker, being much concerned in the future welfare of the church, as well as the future welfare of her family.

When she was only a young girl she realized the need of a Saviour, and united with the Old German Baptist Church, and continued a steadfast and loyal member until called from service to reward. She with her husband were elected to the office of deacon while living in Jasper Co., Ind. and as long as health permitted, she faithfully performed the service the church had called her to.

She was a diabetes sufferer for a number of years and later developed an internal cancer which was the immediate cause of her death. Having been bedfast for nearly six weeks and feeling her end was near, she called for the anointing, which was done, after which she was much comforted and fully resigned and ready to go. The husband has lost a faithful companion, the children a dear and loving mother, the church a loyal member and the community a friend that was never too busy to administer to the comfort and need of any one. While it is hard to part with one we loved so well, yet we feel that our loss is her eternal gain.

Funeral was held Friday afternoon from the Brethren's meeting house ½ mile east and 4 miles north of Surrey by Elder Solomon Stoner of Indiana, assisted by D. T. Deirdoff of the Church of the Brethren, of Surrey, after which she was laid, across the road, on the south slope of our cemetery, there to await another call from the Master.

Jesse A. Wagoner.

LESHER—Beulah May Lesher, daughter of Bro. Chester and Sister Mary Lesher of Franklin Co., Pa., died Feb. 19, 1935, aged 4 months and 10 days. Thus another one, who Just lived long enough to be endeared to its parents, when death claimed it to be carried to him who said "of such is the Kingdom of Heaven." There to be as a magnet to draw those who loved her to strive more because of their treasure on the other side of the river.

Her little body was laid to rest in the cemetery adjoining the "Falling Spring" meeting house. Funeral by the brethren.

H. G. Benedict.

After his marriage the couple moved to Modesto where he made his home until two months ago when he returned to Covina, residing at 116 East Center St.

He united with the Old German Baptist Brethren Church in 1909 and remained faithful until his death.

He is survived by his wife and nine children, Arthur, Ella Montgomery, David, Mildred, Jenny and two sets of twins, Floyd and Loyd and Elva and Elvan and two brothers J. P. and Harvey Overholtzer.

Enoch loved to provide for his family and was a kind father and loving husband and will be missed by all who learned to know and love him.

Funeral conducted in the funeral home of friend Zeb Moore in Covina, Calif., by Bro. J. E. Blickenstaff and the writer from Isaiah 64-6. (We all do fade as a leaf) to a sympathizing congregation of relatives and friends.

PRUETT—In the bounds of the Dry Creek Church, Linn Co., Iowa, Clara Austin Pruett was born June 9, 1866, in Sullivan Co., New York. Departed this life March 1, 1935, at her home in Vinton, Iowa, aged 68 years, 8 months and 22 days.

She married Robert L. Pruett in Nebraska, May 22, 1884. Four daughters were born to this union, 3 still living, Mrs. Minnie Williams, Mrs. Mina Haefner and Mattie Pruett. Mrs. Mabel Sattlerly, died 19 years ago. Two small sons preceded the mother in death. Cecil Satterly has lived with his grandparents since he was two weeks old, following the death of his mother.

There are sixteen grandchildren. Sister Pruett had been a member of the Old German Baptist Church the past 5 or 6 years, since that time being in declining health. She was anointed according to the Apostle James' direction and at her departure we feel our loss is her eternal gain.

Funeral was conducted by the writer in the Fay Hite and Co. funeral parlors of Vinton, Iowa, from 2 Cor. 5:1, to a sympathizing congregation of relatives and friends. Burial in the Evergreen Cemetery close by, there to remain until God shall call her forth. "May we all be prepared when the summons is made that we may come forth at the first and best ressurrection."

Edward C. Miller.

On Oct. 2, 1892, she was united in holy matrimony to Jacob Kelly Royer, who preceded her in death 7 years ago last May. To this union were born three daughters, Bessie Miller, Savilla Graber, Elizabeth DeHoff, and one son, Paul.

Surviving, also, are two brothers, Sherman and William Hildenbrand and 11 grandchildren.

She united with the Old German Baptist Church at the age of 19 years. She was faithful to the end.

A short time before her death, remembering the Apostle James' instruction she was anointed with oil in the name of the Lord.

The funeral was held Nov. 20 at Mt. Pleasant Church. Services by Paul Custer of Lima, Ohio. Burial in church cemetery. Gone but not forgotten.

By the children.

WOLF—Isaac Wolf, son of John B. and Elizabeth Wolf was born near Astoria, Ill., Oct. 28, 1875 and passed away Feb. 23, 1935, aged 59 years, 3 month and 26 days. He is survived by his companion Nora G. and the following children, Levi, Laura Wirth, Arthur, Clifford, Clara, Florence and Claude. One daughter, Elizabeth, preceded him in death Mar. 10, 1925. He also leaves 5 brothers and 3 sisters and many other relatives and friends.

Bro. Wolf served in the Deacon's office for many years. He was ever ready when called and no labor to arduous, for he loved to be in the service of his Master. He was ever willing to sacrifice self in order to help others, patient in adverse conditions, always hopeful. He had a disposition to try to please, but never at the sacrifice of principle. His attachment to the church was strong.

Bro. Wolf died in a hospital in Oskaloosa, Iowa, following an operation for the dread disease cancer. He was conscious unto the end. Made all arrangements for his funeral, prayed fervently in behalf of the church and his family and his spirit took its flight. Thus ended the earthly life of one whom to know was to love. Sister Wolf, his companion accompanied the body on the sorrowful homeward journey, arriving at Modesto Tuesday noon and on Wednesday Feb. 27, a very large concourse of people of all ranks, neighbors, relatives and friends gathered at the Shannon funeral home in Modesto where the services were held.

Many of the encouraging promises throughout the Bible were read and the text for the occasion being selected by the deceased was used, Rev. 14-12 and 13. After all had looked for the last time at his wasted form, the body was borne to the cemetery in Wood Colony where midst many tears loving hands placed the body of Isaac Wolf in the earth and we marked the place. But in the Ressurrection that mark will loose its meaning.

May we so live that when our summons comes, we can be sustained by that unfaltering confidence that characterized the life of Isaac Wolf.

A. E. Miller.

WRAY—At the close of the Sabbath day Feb. 10, 1935, Eliza J. Wray closed her eyes to this world, to open them in the Spiritual world, at the age of 72 years, 5 months, and 20 days.

She was born on August 13, 1862, in Franklin Co., Va., the daughter of John and Mary Eller.

Early in life she united with the church of her choice, and lived a consistent Christian life to the end.

A few weeks before her death, she called for the Elders of the church, and was anointed, which was a great comfort to her.

On Dec. 25, 1883, she was united in marriage to John Wray. This union was blessed with 7 children, who with her husband survive.

She was a kind and loving wife and mother, and was loved by all who knew her; she was always ready and willing to do her part in the church, family, and community where she lived.

Never tiring in her earnest desire to administer to others. She has passed on, but her influence has not gone with her passing. Her father and mother, four sisters and one brother preceded her in death. Left to mourn their loss are her husband, 5 sons, Oz, Joe, Oren, Dan, and Hartzell; 2 daughters, Mrs. E. O. Silver, Mrs. Omar Frantz; 2 sisters, one half brother, a step-mother, (Mrs. Sarah Snyder,) 15 grandchildren, 5 great grandchildren and a host of other relatives and friends.

"Mother is gone but not forgotten."

Services were conducted in the Maple Grove Church, Miami Co., Ohio where mother held her membership, conducted by the Brethren, Simeon Frantz, Julius Cabaniss and J. C. Darst, Friday, Feb. 15, 1935 at 1:30 P. M. Burial in cemetery nearby. Scriptural subject used, John 11:25, 26, and 1 Thess 4:13-18.

The Family.

SENSENEY—Elder Ezra M. Senseney, born March 14, 1848, departed this life Feb. 22, 1935, aged 86 years, 11 months and 8 days. He was a son of the late Elder A. Hanson and Lavina Senseney, of Caroll Co., Maryland, near Unionbridge, where he spent the most of his allotted years.

In the beginning of his declining health, he remembered the last promise of the Lord to his believers, through the Apostle James, and extended the call for the anointing, after which he seemed to rally for a time, but it was soon manifest that the last period of his sojourn here with us, was approaching. Finally the summons came, and he yielded to the call, (we trust) to come up higher.

Those of his family who survive consist of his widow, three children, five grandchildren, with many other relatives and friends to mourn the loss of a devoted husband, a loving father, a kind friend in his community. But now for him the conflict is over, and we trust, he has laid down the cross for the crown, having gained the last victory through Jesus Christ and has gone to rest with him forever, where it is said we shall go no more out forever.

He united with the Old German Baptist church sixty odd years ago and had been an ordained Elder for nearly fifty years, having become so attached to his spiritual interests, that even when in his delirious condition of mind, he would often exhort and quote scripture correctly, seemingly as was his usual custom in health. Thus ended a life of unfailing, uncompromising and unfaltering service; thus the loss to the church will be keenly felt.

On Sunday, Feb. 24, many neighbors and friends gathered at the home to pay the last tribute of respect to the departed, where services were held by the writer, assisted by the home Brethren. Text selected by the departed from Revelation 2:10.

"Be thou faithful unto death, and I will give thee a crown of life." May that crown be the heritage of the saints of the Most High.

OBITUARIES

SHALL WE FIND THEM AT THE PORTALS?

Will they meet us, cheer and greet us,
Those we've loved who've gone before?
Shall we find them at the portals,
Find our beautiful immortals,
When we reach that radiant shore?

Hearts are broken, for some token
That they live, and love us yet!
And we ask, can those who've left us,
Of love's look and tone bereft us,
Though in heaven, can they forget?

And we often, as days soften,
And comes out the evening star,
Looking westward, sit and wonder,
Whether, when so far asunder,
They still think how dear they are.

Past yon portals, our immortals,
Those who walk with him in white
Do they, mid their bliss, recall us?
Know they what events befall us?
Will our coming wake delight?

They will meet us, cheer and greet us,
Those we've loved, who've gone before;
We shall find them at the portals,
Find our beautiful immortals,
When we reach that radiant shore.

She was the third child in a family of 11 children, 6 of whom preceded her in death —5 in infancy. Her brother, Andrew, preceded her 1 month and 24 days.

She was united in marriage to Myron Kinsley on March 27, 1907 and lived with him as a loving and devoted companion nearly 28 years, was also a kind step-mother to his 2 daughters, of a former marriage, and to 1 foster daughter.

She was of a quiet disposition and very patient in adversity and affliction. She united with the German Baptist Church at the age of about 16 years, casting her lot with the Old Order part and living faithful, serving with her husband first in the deacon's office, later in the ministry and eldership. She was gifted in singing which she enjoyed very much. She called for the anointing which was administered according to James 5:14-15, just 10 days prior to her death. She leaves to mourn her departure her husband, 2 step-daughters—Keturah Skiles and Virgie Beckner—a foster daughter, Thelma Gaines, 5 step-grandchildren, 2 brothers and 2 sisters and many other relatives and friends.

She was deprived of the blessing of vision for over 9 months before death. Cause of death, chronic heart ailment.

Funeral at Oak Grove, M. H., by Elders Solomon Stoner, P. D. Bowman and the undersigned. Text Jno. 11:25, 26. Hymns selected by family, Nos. 260, 384 and 392. Burial in Sugar Grove Cemetery. We have a bright hope that our loss is her eternal gain.

For the dissemination of the Primitive Faith, and practice of the early Christian as taught by Jesus Christ and his Apostles and as handed down to the present day by the OLD GERMAN BAPTIST CHURCH.

Price $1.00 per year payable in advance

It contends for the Ancient Principles of the Old Church, and for the Old Paths. It admonishes to humility, love and peace; a check to the rapid growth of pride and popularity; a renunciation of sin in all its various forms, and a deeper work of grace in the heart, etc.

"For whatsoever things were written aforetime, were written for our learning, that we through patience and comfort of the Scriptures might have hope. Now the God of patience and consolation grant you to be like minded, one toward another, according to Christ Jesus: that ye may with ONE mind and one mouth glorify God, even the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ. Wherefore receive ye one another, as Christ also received us to the glory of God." (Romans 15:4-7).

OBITUARIES

"THE LAST MILE OF THE WAY"

Selected by Anna Keller Johnson

If I walk in the pathway of duty,
If I work 'til the close of the day,
I shall see the great King in his beauty,
When I've gone the last mile of the way.

If for Christ I proclaim the glad story,
If I seek for his sheep gone astray,
I am sure, he will show me his glory
When I've gone the last mile of the way.

Here, the dearest of ties we must sever,
Tears of sorrow are seen every day,
But no sickness, no sighing forever,
When I've gone the last mile of the way.

And if here I have earnestly striven,
And have tried all His will to obey,
[illegible]
When I've gone the last mile of the way.

SANDERS—Bro. Chas. H. Sanders died near Rowlesburg, W. Va., April 27, 1935 aged 81 years and 10 month. Sister Stemple was a sister in the flesh of Bro. Sanders. At the time of her death, owing to sickness and otherwise it was about impossible for ministers to attend, so the faithful few isolated ones sang a hymn and had prayer with the hope that at some future time when brethren might come that way a full service might be given for Sister Stemple. So when Bro. Sanders was buried a combined service was conducted. The companions of both had preceded. Neither had left any issue. Both these members were poor in this world's goods, but rich in grace with their Master, we trust. Funeral by Bro. David G. Benedict and the writer. Text used, Heb. 13:14.

A. C. Hess.

George Loyal Sayles, son of Charles and Malissia Sayles, was born in Hannabal, Mo., Nov. 18, 1894; departed this life at his home 3 miles west of Goshen, Ind., Feb. 12, 1935, at the age of 41 years, 2 month and 24 days. He leaves his companion, 6 children, 3 sons and 3 daughters; 3 children preceded him in death. He leaves also one brother and one sister. Funeral conducted by the undersigned and Elder J. M. Coning.

O. A. Custer.

SAUERBAUGH—Eurith A., daughter of Brownfield and Evelina Craft, was born near Brownsville, Pa. June 7, 1848, and peacefully fell "asleep in Jesus", Feb. 23, 1935, at the late home of her departed son, James B. Johnson, west of Bader, Ill., at the age of 86 years, 8 month and 16 days, the last of a family of eight.

Her childhood days were spent near the village where she was born. Death claimed her father when she was but 7 years of age. Later, her mother married Elder Jacob Mack of Masontown, Pa. Here she grew to womanhood. At the age of 17 years she became a member of the Old German Baptist church and lived faithfully until death.

Early in the sixties the family moved to Astoria, Ill. The bodies of her mother and step-father repose in the Woodland Cemetery of the Church of the Brethren in Fulton Co., Ill.

In 1869 she was united in marriage to Joseph I. Johnson, of Uniontown, Pa. To this union four children were born, James B., Immel C., Mary Eva and Anna J. In the year 1876 her husband passed to the great beyond. Later she brought her little family to her mother's home in Astoria.

In 1880 she was married to John Sauerbaugh. She faithfully mothered the four step children, Nathan, Emma, Isaac and George. She was again left a widow in July 1896. From then, her life was devoted to service for others. A few years ago during an illness she called for the Elders of the Church and was anointed with oil in the name of the Lord.

Those left to mourn are, one devoted son, Immel C., the last of his family, Anna J. Bowser, a granddaughter, left motherless in infancy, whom she loved as her own, and five other grandchildren, Paul R. Johnson, Anna, his wife who so tenderly cared for her during her last illness, Mary E. Barnes, Eura M. Sauerbaugh, Ralf W. and Frances M. Johnson, five great grandchildren, ten step grandchildren and many nieces and nephews with hosts of friends who loved her.

Two daughters preceded her in death and one beloved and devoted son, James B. Johnson, died June 6, 1934. She became bedfast in Sept., 1934 and gradually grew weaker until the end. Her mind was clear to the last and though her sufferings were great she found sweet consolation in leaning on the "Everlasting Arms," and as the shadows deepened with the approach to the sunset gate in sweet low voice she repeated the ever comforting words of the Psalmist David, "Yea though I walk through the valley and shadow of death I will fear no evil, for Thou art with me; thy rod and Thy staff they comfort me." Though pain racked she often asked that the beautiful hymn "The last Mile of the Way" be sung to her which was done through a mist of tears.

The little cot where so long her frail body reposed stands empty now. The sweet smiles with which she greeted us, the loving words of council, words cannot express how we shall miss them. Yet how sweet it is to know we have that glorious hope of meeting her again in the "Eden of Love." With our hearts resigned to his will we can only say, "Good Night, Beloved!"

Funeral services were held Feb. 26 at the S. Fulton church of the Brethren, with Elder Solomon Stoner officiating. Text. Rev. 22:14. Burial in the little cemetery near the church.

Come, trembling sinner, forlorn and oppressed,
Join in our number, O come and be blest.
Journey with us to the mansions of rest,
We're homeward bound.

Soon we'll be singing, if faithful we prove
We're home at last!
Sounding in triumph, in mansions above,
We're home at last.
Soon as our toils, and temptations are o'er,
Up to our home with the blest we shall soar,
O, how we'll shout as we enter the door,
We're home at last.
Selected by Mary Coning and Lizzie Barker.

BOWMAN—Jane Bowman, daughter of Benjamin and Mary Wray, was born in Franklin Co., Va., March 30, 1849; died May 2, 1935 in the same county and state, making her sojourn on earth 86 years, 1 month, 2 days. At an early age in life she joined the church of her choice and lived a faithful and consistent life, until God said, It is enough, come up higher.

On Feb. 23, 1871, she was united in marriage to Daniel A. Bowman. To this union were born 5 sons and 4 daughters, all of whom survive her, except one little boy who died in infancy. She leaves to mourn their loss, 1 brother, Eld. Joel P. Wray, 1 sister, Elizabeth Clinefelter, her husband, 4 sons, Benj. H., Joel P., David L., Nathaniel E.; 4 daughters, Cassie A., Lillie Austin, Mary I. Flora, Ethel L.; 36 grandchildren and 26 great grandchildren, besides a host of other relatives and friends. In the passing from labor to reward of this dear sister, the community at large, the husband, children and other relatives deeply feel the loss which they believe is her great gain. Funeral May 4, in the Pig River M. H. by the brethren from Rev. 14:12, 13, to a large assembly of relatives and friends after which interment was made in the family burying ground. "Peace to her ashes." Songs used: 404, 383, 400, 392, 391.

BOWMAN—Emma L. Bowman, born Aug. 17, 1879, departed this life May 18, 1935, aged 55 years, 9 months and 1 day, within the bounds of the Maple Grove Church, Miami County, Ohio.

She was the oldest child of Elder J. B. and Elizabeth Boone and was born in Franklin County, Virginia. She with her parents came to Ohio in 1901 where she passed the rest of her life.

At an early age, she united with the Old German Baptist Church to which she lived a consistent life to the end.

Remembering the injunction of the Apostle James, she called for the Elders of the church and was anointed with oil in the name of the Lord on May 5.

She was of a kind and loving disposition and was always willing to help in time of need.

She bore her suffering with much patience and Christian fortitude.

On Dec. 27, 1906 she was united in marriage to David L. Bowman. To this union were born three children, Orville, Ruth and Kenneth. Besides her companion and children she is survived by 2 grandchildren, her stepmother, one brother, Charles, one half brother, Carson, three sisters, Mrs. W. J. Peters, Mrs. L. H. Arnold, and Mrs. Ira Kinzie, and a host of other relatives and friends. She was preceded in death by her mother and father and one sister.

Funeral services to a very large and sympathetic audience in the Maple Grove Meeting House, Tuesday, May 21, at 2 P. M., by Elder Simeon Frantz and the undersigned, from Rev. 14:12, 13. Hymns 422, 392, 491, 498, 384. The body was laid to rest, to await the resurrection summons, in the family lot, in the New Carlisle cemetery.

ELLER—Clay Francis Eller, son of Bro. Elias and Sister Lucy Eller, was born near Rossville, Ind., June 30, 1909. Departed this life on May 22, 1935, at the age of 25 years, 10 month, 22 days. He was united in marriage to Mary Anna Wolf, Jan. 3, 1930. To this union were born two children, Leo, age 3, and Betty, age 1 year. He was in failing health for several months. Two weeks before his death he entered the Home Hospital, at Layfayette, for observation, where he was attended by the best of doctors; but he grew worse day by day till he finally succumbed to a complication of ailments. While Clay had not made that open confession and come to the church, which he had so much desired, yet his faith was with the church, and when health permitted he with his family were good church attendants. O that this may be a warning to others.

As a young man he had unusual business ability. He mixed freely with the public and made friends wherever he went. Besides the companion and two children, he leaves to mourn his untimely death, his mother, three brothers, Lucian, Adrian and Leroy; two sisters, Verna Wolf and Edith Eller, and two half-sisters, Amy Gascho and Viola Yoder. The funeral was preached by Elder Solomon Stoner, assisted by Elder Joseph Fisher, in the Middle Fork church, near Rossville, Ind., with interment in cemetery nearby.

HUFFORD — Minnie Hufford, daughter of Wm. H. and Amanda Pridemore, was born Feb. 18, 1901, near North Manchester, Ind., died May 26, 1935, aged 34 years, 2 month and 8 days. She was united in marriage to Jacob Hufford, Apr. 15, 1919. To this union were born four daughters and two sons, ranging in age from 15 years to an infant of 2 month. Others surviving are her husband, her parents, 5 sisters and 1 brother. She was preceded in death by 1 sister. She was a kind and affectionate mother and will be greatly missed.

Minnie died at the hospital, Lamar, Colo. The body was brought to her home in Baca Co., Colo., a message was sent to the Sand Creek church, Pratt Co., Kans., for some one to come and conduct the funeral service. Brethren N. W. Garber and John M. Reece responded to the call. The text used was Matt. 24:42-44, to an attentive and sympathizing congregation. Burial in little cemetery near the little church.

MOHLER—Elizabeth Pfautz Mohler, daughter of John and Sarah Pfautz, was born in Lancaster Co., Pa., Dec. 7, 1852. Departed this life April 19, 1935, aged 82 years, 4 months and 12 days. She came to Ohio with her parents when she was 13 years of age and lived in this vicinity until death. At the age of 20 years she was united in marriage to John G. Mohler, who preceded her to the Glory World some three years. To this union 8 children were born, Christena, Martha and Daniel departed this life at an early age. Four sons, Amos, Isaac, John Jr., and Samuel and one daughter Sallie Cover, survive to mourn their loss, but sorrow not as those who have no hope, for we have a bright hope that our loss is her eternal gain. She with her husband united with the church of their choice in early life, the old German Baptist church, to which she remained faithful until death. She was afflicted with that dreaded disease, pneumonia on three different times in the last six years. In January just passed she fell and injured her hip, was bed ridden for seven weeks. She bore her affliction with much patience and Christian fortitude. She recovered and seemed to be exceptionally strong for several weeks. She was at meeting Sunday, the 14th, the first for a long time and enjoyed the meeting very much. On Tuesday evening she complained of not feeling so well, took her bed and Friday morning passed on the way of all the world.

At a previous sickness she remembered the consoling words of the Apostle James and called the elders and was anointed with oil in the name of the Lord. Mother had often expressed herself that she was ready and longed to go home as her eyesight was very poor and could not read to pass the time. She was gifted to singing and passed much of her time singing her favorite hymns.

We feel that mother has set a worthy example, always concerned about others and would sacrifice herself for the comfort of all she met.

Funeral Monday at the Mount Pleasant church, Stark Co., conducted by G. P. Custer, P. D. Bowman, and Ira Metsgar to a very large congregation. Her body was laid to rest in the church cemetery there to await the great resurrection morn.

So when I am weary in body.
And sinking in spirit,I say,
All the toils of the road will seem nothing
When I get to the end of the way.

Cooling fountains are there for the thirsty;
There are cordials for those who are faint;
There are robes that are whiter and purer
Than any that fancy can paint.
Then I'll try to press hopefully onward,
Often thinking through each weary day,
And the toils of the road will seem nothing
When I get to the end of the way.

—Selected.

BAINTER—John O. Bainter, son of William and Mary Bainter, was born in Elkhart County, Union Township, Indiana, on the 28th day of April, 1897. His parents later moved to near Goshen, Indiana, and it is here where he grew to manhood.

In February, 1919, he was united in marriage to Ella Strycker. Soon after their marriage they took up their residence at their present homestead where he engaged in farming and in hauling sand and other supplies. There were born unto them two sons, LeRoy and Robert, three daughters, Bertha, Dorothy and Esther, all of whom remain.

While engaged in repairing his truck, Brother Bainter met with an accident which caused his death some time after nine o'clock Monday night, June 3rd, having reached the age of 36 years, 1 month, and 5 days.

He was converted early in February, 1932, and on the 17th day of the same month he was baptized and became a member of the Locke congregation of the Brethren in Christ Church where he proved himself loyal and faithful to the end. Whenever possible he brought with him to the services as many more as he could take with him in his car.

He was an affectionate and loving husband and father. In his work he made many friends and was respected and loved for his sterling worth and character by all who knew him.

His father and one sister preceded him in death about 10 years ago. There remain to mourn his untimely departure, his wife, Ella, his two sons and three daughters, his aged mother, Mrs. Mary Bainter, three brothers, Jesse, David and George and four sisters, Mrs. Roy Blocher, Mrs. Ora Neher, Mrs. John Nead and Mrs. John Rockwell.

A neice,
Ruby Bainter.

BAIRD—John S. Baird, was born December 17th, 1861 and died June 20th, 1935, aged 73 years, 6 months, and 13 days.

He was born in Wells County, Ind. being the son of Elizabeth and Richard Baird.

His father was killed in the Civil war, when John was 2 years old.

His mother died when he was 9 years old, he was then taken to Ohio where he lived with his relatives until he was 11 years old, then he went to live with Joseph and Elizabeth Arnold, and lived with them until he was married, Dec. 18th, 1883 to Phoebe Crist.

He was the last of a family of 8 children. He lived his entire life on the home farm where he was reared and was active in farming until the last. She was stricken the Sunday before Easter, 1934, with a paralytic stroke from which she did not recover. She bore her affliction patiently for over 13 months, almost helpless. of other relatives and friends. She was active and an object that have no hope. Joined the Old German Baptist Church in the Deer Creek congregation, Va., at the age of 14 years, to which she remained faithful until death.

She was always ready to give good counsel when asked and to lend encouragement to all in their church duties so trusting she has only passed from labor to reward. In her last sickness which was of about nine weeks of much suffering she often expressed her desire for the welfare of the church and gave many directions expressive of her desire and for the welfare of others.

Several months before her death, realizing her health was failing she called for the Elders and was anointed with oil in the name of the Lord.

Funeral by the Brethren at Oak Grove Church, May 24, 1900, to a large congregation of sympathizing friends and neighbors. Buried in the Brethren cemetery on Green Ridge.

OBITUARIES

THE ABSENT ONE

As we gather at the table,
And watch each smiling face,
The heart fills with emotion,
To see the vacant place,
We may strive to bid one longing,
In the midst of mirth and fun,
But we're thinking, thinking, thinking,
Of the loved, the absent one.

When we gather round the fireside,
With merry laugh and jest,
How we wish the absent dear one,
Was here with all the rest;
Still we join in all the frolics,
But we wish the day was done,
For we're thinking, thinking, thinking,
Of the loved, the absent one.

Yet when the day is over,
And they all have gone to rest,
I feel the Heavenly Father,
Does all things for the best,
So I cheer my drooping spirits,
With the rising of the sun,
But can't keep from thinking, thinking,
Of the loved, the absent one.

BAINTER — Mary A. Bainter, daughter of Joseph and Elizabeth

Stouder, was born in Union Township, Elkhart County, Indiana, March 11, 1865, and died at her home July 31, 1935, aged 70 years, 4 month and 20 days.

She was married to William F. Bainter Oct. 7, 1883, and their first home was in Union Township. To this union were born nine children, four sons, and five daughters. About twenty-seven years ago the family moved to Goshen, Ind. On Oct. 16, 1925 her companion was taken from her as the result of an accident. The youngest daughter, Martha, had died April 27th of the same year. The third son, John O., died June 3rd of this year, also of an accident. She is survived by the following children: Mrs. Emma Blocher, Mrs. Lizzie Neher, Jesse J., David F., Geo. W., and Mrs. Mabel Nead and Mrs. Laura Rockwell and 23 grandchildren, also a brother, Lewis Stouder, and a sister, Lucinda Bainter.

She united with the Old German Baptist Church at the age of sixteen. She and her husband were called to the office of the deacon in the Yellow Creek congregation about forty-eight years ago and up to the time of death, they served the church to the best of their ability. She always enjoyed attending church services and working in the church. She became sick in January of this year and since that time has suffered much, but was patient in all her suffering, waiting the time when the Lord should call her away. Mother has gone home, but the memory of her prayers, her years of labor and sacrifice will never leave the memory of her family.

BARTON—It was among the rugged hills of Franklin Co., Va., on June 17, 1849 that a son was born to Matthew and Minerva Barton to whom they gave the name of Matthew Burwell. He grew to manhood in the land of his birth.

In 1866 he with his parents and other relatives migrated to Indiana, where they lived 5 years. Thence he moved to Franklin Co., Kans., where he lived 5 years, from here to Jewell Co., Kans., where he was united in matrimony with Amanda Adolph on Feb. 15, 1877. To this union were born 3 sons and 2 daughters. His companion and 1 son, Johnnie, preceded him in death. He is survived by 2 sons and 2 daughters; 6 grandchildren, 3 brothers and 2 sisters. He was critically ill a few days and pased to the great beyond June 10, 1935, aged 85 years, 11 months and 23 days. He united with the Old German Baptist Church, 10 or 12 years after his marriage. While young in the service of the Lord, was chosen to the deacon's office. He possessed a meek and quiet spirit and was anointed prior to his departure.

He did not worry about financial conditions, but seemed willing to let each day provide for itself. June 12th many friends gathered at the Cook school house to pay their last tribute of respect. Funeral conducted by Bro. John Kinsley and the undersigned from Rev. 14:12, 13 and I Cor. 15:12-24. Hymns, 384, 483, 443, 556, 400. Laid beside his companion where they will rest from their labors and their work do follow them.

Amos Barnhart.

INGLE — Malitany Ellen Ingle daughter of Israel and Elizabeth Wirt, was born in Randolph Co., Ind. Jan. 16, 1846. Departed this life June 28, 1935, aged 89 years 5 months, and 12 days. At the age of 21 she was baptized into the Old German Baptist Church and lived faithful unto the end, being much for reading, she would often leave her work, to search and read the scripture, saying "this Book will be our judge."

On Sept. 2, 1878 she was united in marriage to Henry Ingle. To this union were born four children, namely, George W. Ingle (deceased July 2, 1933), Lizzie Spillers, James O. Ingle and Lovernia Boone. The last three named are left to mourn her departure. Her husband preceded her in death April 5, 1917. After which she soon gave up her home and spent most of the time with her children. She bore her affliction patiently, not being able to talk, for over 2 years. At this previous sickness, she was anointed with oil, according to James 5th chapter, 14th verse. She also selected her funeral text, II Corinthians 13th chapter, 11th verse and hymns 498, 430, 384, 393 and 432.

The Family.

MINNIX—Fleming H. Minnix, son of Sperial and Susanna, (Kessler) Minnix, was born at Boone's Mill, Franklin Co., Va., May 3, 1843. He died at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Mary Berry, Topeka, Kans., July 9, 1935 at 3:45 A. M., aged 92 years, 2 month and 6 days. In 1874 he moved westward, locating in Carroll Co., Ind. later going to Ozawkie, Kans., where in 1877 he was united in marriage to Susanna (Rhoades-Royer) formerly from Henry Co., Ind. To this union were born five children.

Surviving him are two brothers, John M. and Willie and one sister, Lizzie Deardorff; three children, Harvey, Lou, Noah and Mary Berry, and two step-children, Aaron and Dora Brubaker; also 12 grandchildren and 9 great grandchildren. His wife, one sister, Hannah, three brothers, Samuel, Andrew and Joseph and two daughters, Martha and Ida, preceded him in death.

In 1875 while living in Indiana he joined the Brethren Church, remaining a faithful member of the Old Order branch of the Brethren Fraternity, until death. Early in his Christian life he was chosen deacon in the year 1881 in Jewell Co., Kans., in which capacity he rendered long and faithful service. More than the usual amount of physical affliction seemed to be the lot of our father. Later in life he suffered the amputation of a limb as a result of an infection, resulting from exposure as a soldier, during the Civil War. In 1925 his eyes failed and his declining years were spent in physical darkness. Being deprived of his physical sight however, seemed only to intensify his desire to know more of God's eternal light. He found much joy and comfort in the memory of God's word, as well as in the reading of it by kind friends. His work is done, he passed on, he has finished his long and useful course. When death comes to such a one, it comes as a benediction. Life's labors are over, and honorably performed, earning a period of rest in the twilight of a long day.

His funeral was conducted by the Brethren in Cedar Creek M. H. July 11th, from Rev. 14:12, 13; Psalm 116: 15; hymns 384, 422, 392, 398, 407. Interment in the family lot nearby, beside his wife who died in June, 1909. Together they await the resurrection morn.

W. R. Barnhart.

Thus she had attained the age of 78 years, 23 days. She was a daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Henry Kohler. When she realized the end was approaching she called for the anointing oil which was attended to. She leaves to mourn her untimely departure, father, mother, and two brothers, Marvin Keith, Ivan Dale, grandparents Spillers of Ridgeville, Ind., and grandparents Skiles of Calf., great grandmother Spillers of Farmland and many other relatives and friends. For five years in early womanhood she taugh in the public schools of Virginia.

On February 23, 1905, she was united in marriage to Cephas R. Boone. To this union were born eight children—five sons, three daughters. Two sons preceded her in infancy.

On Feb. 21, 1935, she entered the Abbott Hospital at Oskaloosa, Iowa, for treatment. While there she received many cards and letters of friendship and other tokens of remembrance, which were a great comfort to her and were much appreciated both by her and the family.

Having been greatly benefited, in fact seemingly cured, she was dismissed from the hospital June 15th, returning home very hopeful of regaining her health and strength complete.

Being at home at times she seemed to be doing fine, at other times not so good, no doubt continually growing weaker and with all that anxiety could suggest or loving hands could render, God saw fit to call her home and at 2:40, the morning of Aug. 14 her spirit peacefully and quietly took its flight to God who gave it.

Funeral services at Pleasant View Church conducted by brethren Daniel Wertz and Paul Wolf of Quinter, Kansas, assisted by home brethren.

Funeral in the P. M. of the 27th at the home under the trees where he often played; a large congregation of neighbors and friends present. Services conducted by Solomon Stoner, assisted by Jacob W. Skiles. Text: Rev. 21:1-7. We laid our dear boy under the sod and dew of the Maplelawn cemetery.

Ella Flora.

HESS—Anna Loraine Hess, daughter of William and Ida Hess of Franklin Co., Pa., departed this life Aug. 13th, 1935, aged 29 years, 6 months and 20 days.

She leaves to mourn her going from this life, her father and mother, four sisters and three brothers and many friends who have been much saddened by her death.

Anna was an industrious hard-working girl, who stood at her post of duty until disease (Typhoid Fever) had got so strong a hold, that all that man could do was of no avail. Her body was laid to rest in the Green Cemetery, Waynesboro, Pa. Our sympathies go out for the bereaved family. Funeral services by the brethren.

H. G. Benedict.

RODGERS—Bro. W. A. Rodgers was born in Shelby Co., Ill. Jan. 20 1849; died at Baldwin City, Douglas Co., Kans. in the bounds of the Willow Spring church, May 21, 1935 aged 86 years, 4 months, 1 day. Bro. Rogers was never married, but lived at the home of his parents in the state of Idaho until he was 40 years old and took care of his father and mother in their old age until both passed away. Then thrown out of a home he came to Johnson Co., Kansas and lived among the members there for a while, then among relatives in Woodson Co. Kans. being homeless in his old age he spent the last 14 yrs. of his life among the members of the Cedar Creek, Anderson Co., Kans. and the Willow Springs Douglas Co., Kans., districts, by agreement of the two districts, through charity for him keeping him alternately year about until his end, he was a faithful member of the Old German Baptist church and was being cared for by Brother and Sister Brovont at their home in Baldwin City. Funeral by the Brethren of the Cedar Creek and Willow Springs districts.

Daniel Flory

PFOUTZ — Catherine Elizabeth Pfoutz, was born April 20th, 1853; departed this life Aug. 5th, 1935, aged 82 years, 3 months and 15 days. She was the widow of the late Elder Isaac Pfoutz, who had the oversight of the Beaver Dam, Md., congregation for many years.

Sister Pfoutz united with the Old German Baptist church early in life and lived a consistant Christian life of many years. Unfortunately her hearing became impaired in her later years, yet her supreme thought and desire was the welfare of Zion, and one great companion of hers was the Bible, and she was well posted in that which the Lord requires of us that we may attain to that life beyond the river. She leaves to mourn her departure one loving son, Jesse, who so tenderly and lovingly nourished her in her declining days and when she realized that her sojourn here was nearing the approach of the end, she remembered God's last promise to His children in the anointing,and made the call for the Elders, which was performed in her behalf, which gave her much comfort, after which she soon answered the summons to come up higher.

May the influence of that meek and humble life live in the hearts and lives of many kindred ones who follow her, so that she "being dead, yet speaketh," and on Thursday the 8th many neighbors and friends gathered at the home to pay their last tribute of respect to the departed, when her mortal remains were conveyed to their last resting place, in the Beaver Dam cemetery, after which services were held in the meeting house adjoining to a large congregation.

The text used for the occasion was from St. John, 14th chapter and 2nd verse, which was selected by the deceased, to be used at her funeral. May her mortal remains rest in peace until that trump shall sound when all shall come forth.

PUBLISHED MONTHLY BY THE VINDICATOR COMMITTEE

Namely:

Samuel Leedy, John F. Shaeffer, George Bowser, B. E. Beckner, J. M. Kimmel, David Mohler, who have been empowered by the Yearly Meeting

IS A 32-PAGE RELIGIOUS MAGAZINE

For the dissemination of the Primitive Faith, and practice of the early Christian as taught by Jesus Christ and his Apostles and as handed down to the present day by the OLD GERMAN BAPTIST CHURCH.

Price $1.00 per year payable in advance

It contends for the Ancient Principles of the Old Church, and for the Old Paths. It admonishes to humility, love and peace; a check to the rapid growth of pride and popularity; a renunciation of sin in all its various forms, and a deeper work of grace in the heart, etc.

"For whatsoever things were written aforetime were written for our learning, that we through patience and comfort of the Scriptures might have hope. Now the God of patience and consolation grant you to be like minded, one toward another, according to Christ Jesus: that ye may with ONE mind and one mouth glorify God, even the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ. Wherefore receive ye one another, as Christ also received us to the glory of God." (Romans 15:4-7).

We have got to help by living a life unselfish and fine
For that is the only virtue that counts with the "Great Divine."
Let us quit our selfish ambitions, and take our part in life's game;
It may not bring us great riches, but at least we can leave a name.
That the ones we have helped in their struggle to rise up once more, will bless—
A name for unselfish devotion, and not for self-righteousness.

—Selected by Howard C. Beachler, Rt. 1, Kramer, No. Dak.

DEATH

By William C. Doak

We are too stupid about death. We will not learn,
How it is wages paid to those who earn,
How it is the gift for which no work
we pays,
To lie set free from bondage in the flesh;
How it is turning sadness into gaiety,
How it is winning Heaven's eternal gain.

How it means freedom evermore from pain,
How it untangles every mortal mesh.
We are too selfish about death. We count our grief
Far more than we consider their relief,
When the great Reaper gathers in the sheaf,
No more to know the season's constant change;
And we forget that it means only life,
Life with all joy, peace, rest and glory rife,
The victory won and ended all the strife,
And Heaven no longer far away or strange.

Their Lent is over and their Easter won,
Waiting, till over paradise the sun
Shall rise in majesty and life begun
Shall grow in glory, as the perfect day
Moves on, to hold its endless, deathless sway.

BARNES—Charles Wesley Barnes, eldest son of Nimrod Henry and Julia Ann Barnes, was born near New Windsor, Carroll Co., Maryland, Oct. 2, 1854, and departed this life near Clayton, Montgomery Co., Ohio, Sept. 8, 1935, aged 80 years, 11 months and 6 days.

He with his parents moved to Montgomery Co., Ohio in 1864, where he grew to manhood.

He was united in marriage with Ida A. Sponaugle, Dec. 18, 1879.

Of this union were born 7 children, 2 sons, Howard, (deceased) and Walter and 5 daughters, Julia, Minnie, Nancy, Katherine and Clara.

He united with the Old German Baptist Church about the age of 21 years, and remained a faithful member until death.

He bore his afflictions with much patience, during which time he called for the Elders and was anointed with oil according to James 5.

He loved his home and surroundings. Our loss we hope will be his eternal gain.

Funeral services were held at the home. Many friends came to sympathize with the bereaved parents, but we know their loss is Heaven's gain. May we all live to meet our loved ones gone before. Burial in Lower Stillwater cemetery. Services by writer and home brethren.

At the age of 26, she united with the Old German Baptist Church of the Maple Grove District and continued a faithful member until she was called away.

On March 22, 1888, she was united in marriage with Orange Markey, who preceded her in death 24 years. To this union were born eight children, two of whom, Paul and Robert, are dead.

She leaves to mourn their loss six children: Joe, Mrs. Ruth Miller, Mrs. Ethel Creager, Ray, Hugh and Stanley; thirteen grandchildren; a sister, Mrs. Florence Zehring, two half brothers, Dr. E. B. Markey and Amos Markey; two step-brothers; two step-sisters; and many other relatives and a host of friends.

J. E. Cabaniss.

RUTROUGH—Infant daughter of Brother Ezra and Sister Mary Rutrough was born near Dugwell, Franklin Co., Va., Sept. 22, 1935. Her stay on earth was only a few hours. Born on earth to bloom in heaven. Services at the Rutrough grave yard where the body was laid to rest. The parents and grandparents Rutrough and Jamison and other relatives survive who need not sorrow as those who have no hope. Safe in the arms of Jesus.

Lura F. Rutrough, aunt.

SMITH—In the bounds of the Pigg River district of church, Va., in the evening of Aug. 3, 1935, Dermas Smith, a colored sister, died at her home, near Boone Mill, Va., aged 93 years, 6 months. She had been a member of the Old German Baptist church for many years. Funeral on Aug. 5 at the Baptist Church, Boone Mill, Va., by Elder J. T. Rutrough and a colored minister of the Missionary Baptist Church, after which the body was laid to rest in the cemetery near by. We hope our loss is her eternal gain.

Lura F. Rutrough.

WEST—William H. West, of the "Falling Spring" Church, Franklin Co., Pa., departed this life Sept. 20, 1935, aged 66 years, 3 months and 6 days. He was a member of the Old Brethren Church for a good long time, most of the time of which he served faithfully in the office of a deacon. Always at his post of duty when his health would permit. The loss to the church will be keenly felt, always doing his part in a quiet way that won for him the respect of all the members. He leaves a widow who will feel the loss as only a widow can after they have walked so long through life together. Also three daughters and six grandchildren and a great number of friends survive, by whom he will be greatly missed. Services were held in the Brown's Mill Meetinghouse after which his body was laid away in the tomb, awaiting the Lord's return. Funeral by the brethren.

H. G. Benedict.

IS A 32-PAGE RELIGIOUS MAGAZINE

For the dissemination of the Primitive Faith, and practice of the early Christian as taught by Jesus Christ and his Apostles and as handed down to the present day by the OLD GERMAN BAPTIST CHURCH.

Price $1.00 per year payable in advance

It contends for the Ancient Principles of the Old Church, and for the Old Paths. It admonishes to humility, love and peace; a check to the rapid growth of pride and popularity; a renunciation of sin in all its various forms, and a deeper work of grace in the heart, etc.

"For whatsoever things were written aforetime, were written for our learning, that we through patience and comfort of the Scriptures might have hope. Now the God of patience and consolation grant you to be like minded, one toward another, according to Christ Jesus: that ye may with ONE mind and one mouth glorify God, even the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ. Wherefore receive ye one another, as Christ also received us to the glory of God." (Romans 15:4-7).

OBITUARIES

REMEMBRANCE OF THE DEPARTED

Oh why is it loved ones you've left us
And gone to that heavenly shore,
Where Angels are singing and calling,
Where sickness and death are no more?

Alone in this world I am traveling,
Each day sadly thinking of you;
How long will it be till I follow,
Our sweet loving friendship renew?

Yes, on the dark billows I'm waiting
For a glimpse of the beautiful land,
When I shall be wafted over,
By our dear loving Savior's hand.

I miss you dear loved ones, I miss you,
I am lonely away from your side;
But in that fair land may I join you,
And there ever more we'll abide.

Selected by Flora Shively.

BRUBAKER — Elder Henry D. Brubaker was born Feb. 8, 1857, at Greenville, Tenn., died near Westphalia, Kansas., Oct. 27, 1935, age 78 years, 8 months and 19 days.

He moved from Tennessee to Illinois at the age of 21 years. On June 19, 1881, he was united in marriage to Josephine C. Brubaker. To this union were born 3 children, 2 sons and 1 daughter. One son and one daughter preceded him in infancy. He leaves to morn his departure his side companion, one son, John I. near Westphalia, Kansas, 6 grandchildren and 2 great-grandchildren, one brother and a host of other relatives and friends.

He united with the Old German Baptist church at the age of 22 years; four years later he was chosen to the ministry. At the age of 38 years he was advanced to the full ministry, in which position he labored faithfully till life's end. Services were conducted by Bro. Daniel Flory and the home Brethren at the Cedar Creek meeting house.

Burial in the church cemetery.

We hope our loss is his eternal gain.

John I. Brubaker.

FALL—John C. Fall, son of John and Anna Fall, was born at Dora, Wabash Co., Ind., Oct. 26, 1848, departed this life, very unexpectedly at Whittier, Calif., Oct. 22, 1935, where he had resided since 1921, aged 86 years, 11 months and 26 days. He was united in the bonds of holy matrimony to Susan J. Markey, Sept. 21, 1869. To this union were born 3 sons and 3 daughters, namely: Samuel, Johnnie, Markey, Louise, Mary and Amy. His companion preceded him in death May 7, 1905; also 2 sons and 2 daughters in early life. He was given the rights of Holy Baptism in the Old German Baptist Church when quite young, before his marriage.

Grandpa, as he was known for many years, was true to the faith which he embraced and was of a kind and forgiving spirit. His parental ties were very close to his surviving son and daughter. To see grandpa about his daily walk in life, not many would have realized his age. He was seldom confined to his home by sickness. He, with his companion and small children, moved from Indiana to Preble Co., Ohio, in their early married life, where they reared their family. He was the last child of his parents to be called "Home." Grandpa was a regular attendant at the church of his choice, and always willing to lend a helping hand, both to the church and in the homes of his children.

He leaves to mourn his departure his son, Markey, and wife and Mrs. Amy Richardson and husband; also six grandchildren, four great grandchildren, four sisters-in-law, and many nephews and nieces. But we hope our loss is his eternal gain. There was short services at his son's house at 1 p. m., Oct. 26, 1935; then at the New River Church further services were held by the home Brethren, assisted by Bro. Charles B. Rumble, to a large and sympathizing congregation. The Scriptural lesson read was the Nineteenth Psalm, also St. John 14-1, 2, 3. Rev. 14-12, 13. James 4-13, 14, 15.

The same night, the body, accompanied by Bro. Markey Fall and his wife, left for Eaton, O. He was taken to his daughter's home Mrs. Ed. Richardson and on Oct. 30, at 2 p. m. services were conducted by Brethren Wm. N. Kinsey and Ervan Eikenberry in the Upper Twin Church. Scripture used was St. John 11:28. He was laid to rest in the Sugar Grove cemetery, near Lexington, by the side of his wife to await the resurrection. Peace to his ashes. E. E. Kreiter.

FITCH— Amos, died near Custer, Mich., aged about 85 years. He was a member of the Methodist church, attended our meetings at times, was a quiet and very accommodating Indian, stopped and visited with me often and talked about the good man Jesus. He leaves one son and one daughter and a number of grandchildren. They had an Indian choir. They sang from their book (hymns Nos. 503, 84, 476 in our book) singing in their own language except one song, a chorus, in our language. Their leader was an Indian preacher. Funeral by the writer assisted by Brethren A. C. Hess of Pa. and A. R. Miller. A. A. Neff.

HOLLINGER—Lizzie A. Hollinger, daughter of David S. and Manda Miller, was born near Harrisonburg, Rockingham, Co., Va., Sept. 6, 1866; departed this life near Gettysburg, O., Oct. 17, 1935, aged 69 years, 1 month and 11 days. Early in life she came with her parents to Ohio, locating in the vicinity of the place of her death and where she spent some 55 years of her life.

She was united in marriage to John F. Hollinger, Sept. 15, 1889. To this union were born one son and two daughters. One of the daughters departed this life in infancy; also two brothers and 2 grandchildren preceded her in death. There remain to mourn her departure her husband, 1 son (Noah) 1 daughter (Rosa Miller), 1 brother (Benj. Miller), 8 grandchildren, 2 great-grandchildren with many other relatives and friends.

She united with the Old German Baptist Church at the age of about 16 years and lived faithful to her profession until death. Cause of death (heart trouble).

About one year prior to her death at a similar sickness she called for the anointing which was administered according to James 5-14.

She was very industrious and a regular church attendant when health permitted much concerned about the sick and needy, willing to serve. We have a strong hope that our loss is her gain.

Funeral at the Oak Grove church on Sat. at 2 p. m. Oct. 19 on the day of Communion, conducted by Brethren P. D. Bowman, John F. Shaeffer and home Brethren, to a large congregation. Burial in Oakland cemetery nearby. M. J. Kinsley.

HUFFORD—John Hufford, second son of Simon and Amanda Hufford, was born in Jasper Co., Ind., July 8, 1889. Departed this life at his home in the Yellow Creek church district, near Nappanee, Ind., Sept. 28, 1935, after an illness of 12 weeks, due to complications following the "flu," aged 46 years, 2 months and 20 days.

On Jan. 18, 1911 he was united in marriage to Frances Wagoner, near Surrey, N. Dak. To this union eight children were born, namely, Mrs. Claude Overholser, Alpha, Jesse, Marvin, Levi, Rosa, Doris and Velma Faye, all who with a faithful companion are left to mourn his untimely death.

He was one of a family of 12 children, his mother, 2 brothers and 2 sisters preceded him in death, his father (who made his home with John this summer), 5 brothers: George, Albert, Elmer, Daniel and William; 2 sisters, Elizabeth Wagoner and Ida Flory also survive.

In 1911 he, with his parents, moved to Ward Co., N. Dak. In 1916 he with his family moved to Flint, Mich. and resided there a few years, then moved to Elkhart Co., Ind., where he lived until called from time into Eternity. At the age of 21 years he united with the Old German Baptist church, to which he lived a faithful member.

Realizing his end was near he called for the Elders and was anointed with oil, according to the instructions of the Apostle James, which was a great comfort to him.

Father bore his afflictions with great patience, and had a smile and kind word for everyone.

The family has lost a kind, loving and affectionate husband and father, the church a loyal member and the community a real neighbor and friend.

It is hard to part with one we loved so well, but do not sorrow as those who have no hope.

Brethren Jacob W. Skiles and Leander Miller conducted the services, which were held at the home on Tues., Oct. 1, to a very large and sympathizing audience. His body was then taken to its last resting place. May we all so live as to meet our loved one who has gone before.

By the Family.

KEISTER— Sister Laura Keister, daughter of John and Sarah (Kline) Grossnickle, was born in Frederick Co., Maryland, Feb. 1, 1858. Departed this life Oct. 2, 1935 at the age of 77 years, 8 months and 1 day.

She was united in marriage to Solomon Shively Oct. 25, 1875. To this union were born 6 children. Two of these died in infancy. Her companion died July 17, 1896.

She was again united in marriage to Jeremiah Adams in the year of 1898. To this union one son was born.

This companion died Dec. 14, 1928.

She was again united in marriage to Adam Keister, Oct. 3, 1929. She leaves to mourn her departure her husband, 1 daughter and 4 sons viz. Maude Grossnickle, Jake Shively, Jesse Shively, Ernest Shively and Noah Adams; also 2 brothers and 2 sisters, viz. Jesse and Lyman Grossnickle, Mrs. Henry Ulrey and Mrs. Elmer McDaniel; also 12 grandchildren and 7 great-grandchildren and 4 step-children. O. A. Custer.

WOLFE—Sister Ethel May Wolfe, oldest daughter of Henry and Sister Leah Wrightsman, was born at Holmesville, Neb., Nov. 23, 1894. She departed this life Aug. 17, 1935, at the home of her sister, Edna Burns, Davison, Mich., aged 40 years, 9 months and 24 days.

She was united in marriage to Fred Wolfe, their home being in the vicinity of the Quinter, Kansas church.

To this union were born 2 sons, Don and Roy, 2 daughters, Dorothy and Frances. Roy preceded her in death about 3 years ago. On account of her illness from cancer, she was taken to the hospital at Oskaloosa, Iowa for treatment.

From there she came to her sister's home and soon grew worse and could not return home as she expected.

Seeing she was growing weaker she followed the injunction of the Apostle and was anointed in the name of the Lord.

She endured her affliction with Christian fortitude until God called her to her reward. Frequently she desired select hymns sung which was much comfort to her and often in tears she read and talked with the family from the Bible instructing them to live right.

She leaves to mourn their loss a devoted husband (Bro. Fred Wolfe), a kind and dutiful son, aged 17, 2 daughters, aged 8 and 6, of Grainfield, Kans. Father and mother of near Davison, Mich., three brothers, Raymond, Ralph and Earl and three sisters, Edna Burns, Florence Stull, Mabel Wrightsman and many other relatives and friends. Loving hands and hearts did all in their power to relieve her, but without avail. Our hearts were filled with grief to see her slowly fade away. Soon, oh, soon she crossed the river, left us in the world to mourn.

Funeral services conducted at the church house by Bro. Albert Balsbaugh. Text. Phil. 1:21 "For to me to live is Christ, and to die is gain."

The body was laid to rest in the Tanner cemetery to await the resurrection morn. By the near relatives.
